WINTER DAVIS AND NEGRO SEFFRAGE .-A Washington despatch to the New York Tribuna save: The Hon. Henry Winter Davis will proba-bly deliver the Fourth of July oration in Uhicago, and it is said will take strong ground in favor of negro suffrage. Mr. Davis would have ometated as orator in Baltimore on the same occasion had be not received an earlier invitation from Chicago.

IT Mrs. Seward was buried on Saturday in the cemetery at Auburn. The funeral ceremonies were very touching and impressive. There was a great gathering of emment citizens who bad known and honored the debimself, not yet recovered from his bodily wounds, and bowed down by this deep wound of the heart, was an object of such affectionate solicitude as rarely falls to the lot of any man.

MYSTERIOUS MOVEMENTS IN THE FRENCH DOCKYARDS.—The Vigie, of Cherbourg, states that the Government has ordered the transport vessel, Girande to be immediately got ready for sea. Her destination is not known. Orders have also been received to push forward the works which are being carried on at Cherbourg, in order that the three other transports may shortly be ready for service.

burg, Va., has forbidden, in an official order, the holding of any more meetings by the plant-ers to establish a fixed price for the labor of the negroes, or to make distinctions prejudicial to their interests, and no difference in the rate of compensation for the same labor by whites and blacks is to be allowed.

ber and Materials for the Navy." that they may be distinguished from other business letters, and directed to the Ohief of the Bureau of Construc tion and Repair.

The materials and articles embraced in the classes named are particularly described in the printed schedules, any of which will be furnished to such as desire to offer, on application to the Commandants of the respective yards or to the Navy Agent nearest thereto, and those of all the yards upon application to the Bureau.

The Commandant of each Navy Yard will inform bidders of the quantities of each article, where the sizes are variable.

This division into classes being for the conveni ence of dealers in each, such classes only will be furnished as are actually required for bids. The Commandant and Navy Agent for each station
